Important Notes:

- Attendance in classes is mandatory from the very beginning of the semester. Students who miss even a single lecture among the first three lectures of a course are liable to have themselves de-registered from the corresponding course.
- All the departments are requested to strictly adhere to the above schedule.
- The industrial visits shall be scheduled incorporating Saturdays/Sundays/holidays as far as possible with intimation to other faculty members concerned with teaching for that class.
- Training & Placement officer is requested to arrange the interviews schedules and activities on Saturdays/Sundays/holidays as far as possible.
- Saturdays and public holidays may be used to conduct Mid-semester and Semester end Examinations. However, effort is normally to be made to exclude Sundays for mandatory academic activities, including examinations.
- The department will be responsible for conducting 90 days of academic activity within specified term period. If 90 days are not completed use of Saturdays/Sundays and public holidays is recommended. The term will not be extended under any circumstances.
- A schedule of compensatory classes against unengaged classes will be displayed and conducted at departmental level.
