The program began with introduction of the club by the head of club, Shubham Shelke. Ankita Morghade shared Motivating journey of Mr Pranil Gilda, chief guest for the program with all attendees. The program then continued by the address of faculty advisor of Udaan club, Dr. S.M. Shinde. Then the logo of Udaan club was revealed. Objective of the club and information of all domains was shared along with proposed activities of the club by Prashant Mhaske.

An energetic young and motivating speaker Mr. Pranil Gilda, also alumni of GECA was invited as chief guest for the inaugural program of udaan club. A poem was shared with all attendees before the address of Pranil Gilda sir. He gave detailed information about competitive examination. He stressed on the topic “WH Questions” that every aspirant should ask in the difficult journey of preparation. According to Mr. Pranil Gilda a person who is physically fit, mentally tough, socially aware and intellectually sharp; is the one who can crack competitive examination. He also shared his preparation journey with all ups and downs. He stressed that every aspirant must have plan b in preparation of competitive examinations. He also told every GECA student to focus on personality development. In this way he guided and motivated all the students.

The program then continued by address of Dean of Student Activities Prof. Santosh Atipamlu. Student council president, Roshan Tikar gave information about AAGECA scholarship and how this scholarship will help students in preparation of competitive exams and also gave insights of how books of the “Book Bank”, an initiative of Student Alumni Team (SAT), will be used to gift winners of various activities of Udaan Club. Finally a poem was dedicated for Udaan Club by our student Vishant Charak. The program was concluded by thanking speech by Shamal Shelke. About 270 students of the institute have attended the program which describes the success of the program and ultimately shows the interest of students towards the competitive examinations. All the above things were possible due to guidance and support of hon. Principal Dr. U.J. Kahalekar.
