

Samvedna Club

To feel what others feel, to understand, realize and sympathise is the spirit of Samvedna club.

Not turning a blind eye towards the underprivileged class of society, to lend a helping hand and to strive for the betterment of all of humanity has been the motto of Samvedna Club.

Multiple activities are carried out throughout the year with guidance from faculty advisors and through the work of volunteers that contribute to the cause of helping the society. Thus, in a way Samvedna Club is a way of giving back to the community.

The activities that are held under Samvedna Club:

1. EQ-IQ Test

Date: 20th August

Samvedna Club had arranged an eq-iq (Emotional questioning and intelligence questioning) test for first year students during the induction program for personality development / training workshop. Out of which students were selected on merit basis and were invited for the PD workshop. About 40 students enrolled for this program. In this workshop students from first year were given practical ways and techniques to improve their personality and enter in the world of professionalism. They were given a series of lesson on etiquettes and manners to be followed during a presentation, formal talk, dressing sense, group discussions and many activities.

2. Guest Lecture:

Date: 5th September

On the occasion of teachers Day Samvedna Club had arranged a program. The chief guest of the program were Dr. Sandeep Lokhande(dentist and implantologist at nimai hospital) . Students were addresses about the importance of a teacher in life. Many incidents and stories were wholeheartedly listening to his golden words After the program students were endowed with some delicious snacks.

3. Blood Donation Camp

Date: 20th September

The Samvedna Club organised the Blood Donation Camp in association with Government Medical College and Hospital Aurangabad. The Camp was inaugurated by Dr. P B Murnal , Dr A M Nikalje. There was huge response from the students, about 98 students donated their blood. The competition like poster Making, Rangoli also held on the day blood donation.

4. Swachhata Abhiyan:

Date: 2nd October

On the occasion of 150th birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi Samvedna club had arranged a campaign called clean GECA. In that all students of our college and the teachers also participated.

5. Awareness Programme

Date: 13th October

Students from first year addressing school kids for celebrating a safe and green Diwali. This event was done under Santosh Tapkire(principal of Z P School). The students gave a presentation. They taught many ways and productive activities that can be done in Diwali instead of the risk of harming oneself and the environment by burning crackers.

6. Orphanage Teaching

When: every weekend

One of the activities that is regularly held throughout the academic year. There are multiple objectives to the visit. As these visits help those students with their studies. Along with that, students are helped with any other difficulties they might be facing.

The visits convey an important message as they let the students know there are people in the society that care for them and are looking out for them.

It helps us, the volunteers, learn gratitude and inculcate it in our lives. Thus, Samvedna Club operates to help make the world a better place.